

CIBC announces new U.S. Banking Center in Chicago's Little Village Neighborhood

CHICAGO, July 17, 2019 - CIBC today announced its newest U.S. Banking Center will open in Chicago's Little Village neighborhood at 3010 South Kedzie Ave.

The 6,000-square-foot facility is scheduled to open in August 2019 with a full-service bank branch staffed by personal bankers, residential lending specialists and small business banking professionals, as well as a drive-up lane and an ATM. Also featured in the new facility will be a community room with seating for up to 30.

"We are pleased to join the Little Village community," said Brant Ahrens, President, U.S. Retail and Digital Banking, CIBC. "CIBC is passionate about ensuring that residents of all our communities have the financial resources and education they need to achieve their ambitions."

CIBC has 20 Chicago-area Banking Centers and additional branch locations in Milwaukee, St. Louis and suburban Detroit.
