

CIBC Grows Team in Texas to Establish Southwest Region for Commercial Banking

DALLAS, July 25, 2018 — CIBC today announced Greg Leftwich is named Managing Director, National Commercial Banking, and Head of the Southwest Region, based in Dallas.

Leftwich joins the CIBC Private Wealth Management and CIBC Capital Markets teams in Dallas to help bring the full complement of our services to this important U.S. market.

“Under Greg’s leadership, we look forward to delivering enhanced commercial banking capabilities to Dallas businesses,” said Bruce Hague, CIBC Executive Managing Director and President of U.S. National Commercial Banking at CIBC Bank USA. “Greg will play an important role in bringing our tailored commercial banking solutions to clients in the Southwest who value a true relationship-based approach.”

Leftwich joins CIBC from Commerce Bank in Dallas, where he most recently served as Market President for commercial banking in North Texas and managed the opening of a new commercial banking office in 2012. Leftwich’s experience includes more than 22 years of financial services experience in the Dallas area.
