

CIBC expands commercial banking team in Charlotte

CHICAGO, September 9, 2021 — CIBC today announced the addition of Jenkins “Jenks” Meyer, managing director and commercial relationship manager in Charlotte, North Carolina. He joins recent hire Matt Genett, head of CIBC’s US Commercial Real Estate team in Charlotte.

“We are pleased to welcome Jenks to our bank,” said Karen Case, president, CIBC US Commercial Real Estate. “Our primary purpose is to deliver top-notch customer service, and having another experienced professional like Jenks to service our clients will only further enhance our ability to do so.”

Meyer brings 18 years of industry experience to CIBC. In this role, he will maintain and develop client relationships, exploring opportunities to provide additional credit and non-credit services. Prior to joining the bank, he served as a commercial real estate portfolio manager at Regions Bank. He earned a Bachelors degree in business and economics from Wofford College.
