CIBC supports clients' ambitions this Client Appreciation Day

CHICAGO, OCTOBER 28, 2021—CIBC today announced it will be supporting clients' philanthropic goals by making special contributions to some non-profit clients as part of its Client Appreciation Day celebration.

"At CIBC, our purpose is to help our clients achieve their ambitions," says Michael G. Capatides, Senior Executive Vice President and Group Head, US Region. "For our non-profit clients, achieving their ambitions means making a difference in the lives of those they serve. We are pleased to provide these contributions as a way to move them one step closer to their ambitions made real."

CIBC supports organizations that make an impact by through investment, education and volunteer opportunities. We have made additional contributions to the following organizations:

- Suicide Prevention Services Inc.
- Counseling Center of the North Shore
- Pass it on Center
- Crisis Center of South Suburbia
- The Night Ministry
- West Side Forward

"Our team is grateful for the trust our clients place in us every day," said Amy Yuhn, CIBC US Chief Marketing Officer and Head of Communications and Community Development. "On Client Appreciation Day, we all take a moment to show our thanks for the opportunity to provide financial solutions to help our clients achieve their goals."
